Award for Dundalk FM's 'Ability Focus' programme

LINDA Hamill and Christina O'Boyle were awarded a 'Social Benefit' Achievement Award from CRAOL for their weekly programme 'Ability Focus' on Dundalk FM.

The award is for their work in highlighting the positive contributions that are being made by people with disabilities.

CRAOL, representing the community radio sector, told the group that the programme displayed 'great preparation and research and that it has a great mix of information and personal experiences'.

human being has and to build bridges between people with disabilities and people without.

The show featured many Dundalk people with over 15 guests since the first programme was broadcast in March, examples being Alma Carroll, RehabCare who spoke about life as a wheelchair user; Alan Maguire, FWDI Louth Network talked about living with rheumatoid arthritis, his work as an architect, wife Claire Cunningham spoke about her physical disability and about expressive arts, a
