

Script - Monday Mashup.

Kris Rogers - Daniel Farrell - Christina George -Anthony Bravender

Intro:

DJ & Co-Host: "Good afternoon you're listening to the Monday Mashup bringing you right up until 6 o'clock. (Allow guests to introduce themselves). We also have music from The Strypes, and Nirvana as well as the usual craic and banter, so make sure you stay tuned."

But first, it's Duke Dumont.

Duke Dumont – I Got You

Link #1:

DJ: "Definitely the hit of the summer! I'm not sure how long it's going to last in the charts but I think that is going to be the one you remember the summer of 2014 by, lying in the sun and just chilling."

DJ & Co-Host: *Introduction to phone call

Phonecall:

I've got Kris on the phone, he was at a chicken farm earlier, what's happening there, Kris, what is it?

DJ & Co-Host: *Elaborate on phonecall

Cue Song The Strypes-What A Shame

DJ: "Coming up, we've got the weather, some entertainment news and community notices."

DJ: "These guys were on Lettman recently, got a really good reception. They're in the Academy next week, you should go check them out if there's any tickets left!"

DJ: *Link to community notices

Weather:

Today

Further rain, drizzle and fog to start today, but drier later. Highest temperatures 12 to 15 degrees.

Tonight

Further rain tonight, turning heavy and persistent overnight. Lowest temperatures 10 or 11 degrees.

Tomorrow

Dull and damp with heavy rain to start but becoming drier and brighter with sunshine and showers later. Highest temperatures 12 to 14 degrees with moderate to fresh southerly winds veering southwest later.

Community Notices:

Earlier this week we reported how The Spirit Store was going pink to mark the arrival of the Giro d'Italia in Dundalk next month.

The work on the popular George's Quay music venue is now complete with a cycling mural painted on the side of the building by Barry Finnegan of Thinking Cap Murals.

Check out the finished product in our pictures above and below or call down to the Store yourself to see it in the flesh.

April Gig Guide:

Thu 10th April

Jameire (Bob Marley Tribute)

Doors 8pm - €5 admission

Jaméire are a five piece reggae band hailing from Louth, Meath, Dublin and Mozambique. Expect to hear all the Bob Marley favourites and some of the lesser known gems when Jaméire take a trip through the early days of ska with the likes of Simmer Down all the way to the later hits such as Buffalo Soldier and Iron Lion Zion.

Sat 19th April

Declan O'Rourke

Doors 8pm - Tickets €20

Declan's star has ascended even more since he was last here. A superbly disarming performer and wonderful songwriter. "He writes the sort of classic songs that people don't write anymore, songs that sound like they've been around forever. Listen to Galileo, which is possibly the greatest song written in the last 30 years." - Paul Weller, Mojo Magazine (Apr 2012).

Fri 25th April

Jinx Lennon

+ guests The Rollers + Fabian Rothschild

Doors 8pm - Tickets €10

Whether its played on one string guitar or sampled disco beat and raw garage noise and blues Jinx's music is sure to make the atoms on your skin surface vibrate externally for eternity. Jinx is currently in his HQ working on songs for his next album working title "Keep Sane in The World of Eager Smiling Pricks". Support comes from The Rollers whose music brings heady visions greats like The Who circa 65 with a North East border twist and very special guest Fabian Rothschild whose CV includes performing with The La's, The Fall, Arthur Lee's Love. 21st Century acoustic finger-picking freeform. Visualize Bert Jansch channeling Ravel.

Entertainment:

DJ: "Something happened on television last night, this is weird, tell us!"
