4word Project record a radio show

Dundalk's young parents group, the 4word project completed a radio-training course recently. Their one-hour programme was broadcast on Monday 19th December at 11.00am. The trainees recorded voxpops on Clanbrassil Street, asking shoppers about the effects of Budget 2012, whether Christmas advertising puts pressure on parents, crime and drug abuse in the area and the benefits of the 4word programme. Now on podcast.

FREE Community Group Radio Training

Through the support of the Louth Leader Partnership Grant aid scheme 2011 community groups in Co Louth visited the station to record a half hour programme. In November, the Louth ICA, Dundalk's Polish community representatives from Simul Polnia, Youth Reach Dundalk and Dunleer Community Development Board took part in the training.

Two National Community Radio Awards

Congratulations to the team of our morning flagship current affairs show 'Town Talk' for team effort - Heather Evans, Alan

Bogan, Michael Duffy, Eileen Corcoran, Aidan Noone and occasional guest presenters and staff Pdraig Quigley and producer Edel McMullan. The second winner was the Sunday morning easy listening show 'Magic Moments' hosted by Joe Martin with Mary Wallace. The programmes join 'Ability Focus' with Christina O'Boyle and Linda Hamill and 'Bits and Pieces' producer Alan Bogan as CRAOL Achievement Award winners.

Planning for 2012- 2014

All members are invited to the 2nd Strategic Planning workshop in the Community Offices, Partnership Court on Wednesday 1st February 2012 at 7:00pm. This meeting is for the board, staff and members with the aim of completing the draft plan proposed on 5th January.

70's Christmas Fund-raiser in the Lisdoon

We had a full house, a full dance floor and four of the best entertainers in Dundalk - Pdraig Quigley, Paddy McEaney, Eileen Corcoran and Joe Duffy at Paddy Mac's 70's Christmas Party on December 8th. Thanks to everyone who got involved - we had lots of people saying it was a great night out especially Stephenstown Pond Crew, Inniskeen Pitch and Putt and Dundalk Toastmasters.

Patrick Kavanagh Documentary

Dundalk FM's Aidan Noone's documentary about Patrick Kavanagh, recorded in Inniskeen (including an interview with Art Agnew) was broadcast in December and now available on podcast. If you have an idea for a documentary, call in and talk to Alan Byrne.
