

March 2012

Promoting Dundalk – at home and abroad.

Come and join Dundalk's Community Radio Station. Pictured l to r Sean Callaghan (The Beaten Tracks 6pm Tuesday); Charles Barker, Chairperson, (Conversations with Dundalk Toastmasters first and third Saturday at 12pm); Jim McAteer, Padraig Quigley, Assistant Manager (producer of The Lunchbox Mon- Fri 12pm-2pm), Cathal Cassidy, Vice Chair (Fadó, Fadó, 6pm Monday with Séamus Tiernan and Peter Kavanagh also The Business Brunch 10am Saturday with Stephen Murphy); Louise Dowdall (Electric 80's 7pm Friday); Paddy McEneaney, Production Staff and Good Morning Dundalk producer); Anthony O'Hagan Musicals Mystery Tour which has come to an end of the series after 300 episodes, also producer of radio documentary 'The Wreck of the Mary Stoddart); Hugh McKitterick, Dundalk Lion's Club, Assistant Treasurer and station presenter; Valentino Tendai Drive Time Monday-Friday at 4pm.

Great company, great music every day. Call us for a station tour.

Online, on 100fm and on the street where you live -
Dundalk FM is your local radio station.

Hoping to meet you at our next Member's Meeting – new members welcome! Wednesday 11 April 7.00 pm, Community Offices, Partnership Court, Dundalk.

Congratulations to our March 2012 monthly draw winner Sarah Coburn!!!

Say hi to our TY Dream Team - Hannah, Sandrina, Paul and Vincent – you can download or listen again to their show from the www.dundalkfm.com podcast section.

Our one-to-one Learn about Radio courses are now booking. Learn how to record news, record an ad, record an interview, edit a vox-pop, learn how to work our studio desk, record a 25 minute music programme and try out our outside broadcasting equipment. Eight components to complete at times to suit your needs. Cost €160.

Dundalk FM Radio vacancies

Dundalk FM has vacancies for volunteer research assistants, sports commentary team members and outside broadcast assistants, community journalists and documentary makers to make well produced and interesting local content. Essential: Motivated to learn about broadcasting and to help give a voice to all members of our community. Call 93 95 100 or drop into the station anytime.

studio sms 087 0909791.
Tel 042 9395100.

Email info@dundalkfm.com.
Partnership Court, Park Street,
Dundalk, Co Louth.

